Dear Local Government Official:

As the recipient of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds, provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), your local government is required to affirmatively further fair housing.

April 2022 marks the 54th anniversary of the enactment of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 - Fair Housing Law. Fair Housing Law prohibits discrimination in the sale or rental of housing based upon race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or familial status.

Governor Justice has proclaimed April 2022 as Fair Housing Month in West Virginia. The proclamation commemorates this anniversary and emphasizes the policy of the State of West Virginia to provide its citizens with equal opportunity and access to housing.

You are reminded of your responsibility to implement appropriate activities to promote fair housing during the month of April throughout the year. Enclosed is a list of examples and resources your agency may find useful in promoting fair housing.

Fair Housing Month is an opportunity to review and initiate local policies designed to affirmatively further and promote fair housing choice.

Affirmative steps may include the passage of a fair housing resolution or the issuance of a special proclamation to bring the message of fair housing to the citizens of your community, newspaper ad or public service announcement. More importantly, local zoning and policies must also reflect a commitment to fair housing.

If you need additional information, please contact Ryan Halsey, CDBG Project Manager, at (304)352-3988 or send email to Ryan.J.Halsey@wv.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Ferrell

Whereas, the departments and agencies of the State of West Virginia provide leadership in an effort to make fair housing a right that can be realized by all of our citizens.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim April 2022 as:

I WAS DENIED HOUSING BECAUSE I HAVE AN ASSISTANCE ANIMAL.

SO I CONTACTED HUD FOR HELP.

When a landlord tried to deny me housing because of my assistance animal, I contacted HUD and learned about my fair housing rights. For instance, landlords must make reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, such as allowing an assistance or emotional support animal in a no-pets building. If you believe you have experienced discrimination, contact HUD or your local fair housing center and file a complaint.
