CONSIDERATION OF REALIGNMENT OF HEALTH INSURANCE

County Attorney Carl Roop explained due to rising costs of PEIA Insurance, the County has looked into options for Insurance coverage. The costs increased approximately 15% last year and are expected to increase the next two years. There was much discussion regarding Plan A, Plan C, and the Health Savings Account including should an employee decide to continue with Plan A, the employee must absorb the extra cost.

Commissioner Epling moved to approve the realignment of PEIA Health Insurance Plan A to Plan C. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Duckworth and motion carried.

Commissioner Epling moved to approve the hiring of USI Insurance Services consultant Pete Thackston in the amount of $40,000.00. He will be available for consultation with each County employ beginning April 29, 2024 through Open Enrollment. Mr. Thackston will also be available for consultation once each month. Seconded by Commissioner Duckworth and motion carried unanimously.
